A delegation of top administrators from Indiana University's ITM/MUCIA Center in Shah Alam, Malaysia visited the Bloomington and Indianapolis campuses on October 8-15 to discuss future directions of the program. The group consisted of Dato' Dr. Hj. Mansor Hj. Salleh, Director of the Institut Teknologi MARA (ITM); Tuan Hj. Ariffin Ibrahim, Deputy Registrar; Tuan Hj. Dr. Zaini Hamzah, Head of the Centre for Preparatory Studies (PPP); Dr. Hazadiah Mohd Dahan, Head of the PPP/MUCIA Program; and Dr. Norman Overly, Provost of the ITM/MUCIA Program.

At IU-B, they met with Patrick O'Meara, Dean of International Programs, and Malaysia Program administrative staff, and consulted with key liaison faculty from various departments participating in the Program. IU-B faculty included Patrick Brantlinger (English), John Brothers (Mathematics), William Corsaro (Sociology), Harry Gradman (CELT), Margaret Intons-Peterson (Psychology), Michael Phillips (Business Law), and John Wills (Physics). IUPUI faculty consulted were Raymond Chin (Computer Science), Robert Dick (Communication & Theatre), Robert Kirk (Economics), and Oner Yurtseven (Engineering). At IUPUI, the delegation was hosted by Chancellor Gerald Bepko and William Plater, Dean of the Faculties, and also met with Giles Hoyt, Patricia Bidding and James Haas, all of the Office of International Affairs, as well as Scott Evenbeck, Associate Vice-Chancellor, and Mark Grove, Registrar.

Pictured upper right (l. to r.): Dr. Hazadiah Mohd Dahan, Tuan Hj. Ariffin Ibrahim, Timothy Diemer (Director of Administration), Patrick O'Meara, Dato' Dr. Hj. Mansor Hj. Salleh, Charles Reafsnyder (Associate Dean), Dr. Zaini Hamzah, and Norman Overly.

Pictured in middle: Dato’ Dr. Hj. Mansor Hj. Salleh paying a courtesy visit to Thomas Ehrlich, President of Indiana University.

Pictured lower right: The ITM/MUCIA delegation in a working session with Bloomington-based Malaysia Program administrative staff (l. to r.): Dr. Hazadiah, M. Jo Terkhorn, Norman Overly, Dr. Zaini, Lynn Schoch, Anne Klarich, Roxana Ma Newman, and Timothy Diemer.